

Standing Out, IAILA, Los Angeles, CA; Curator: Sagi Refael

Dror Yisrael Hemed is known for his luscious and magnetic portrait paintings, that are based on men and women he has personal relations with, alongside snap photographs he takes in the public spaces, transforming them into intimate and vivid representations of enigmatic and subtle beauty.

The exhibition is in conjunction with the city of Los Angeles LGBT Heritage Month.